Aberdeen and North East Branch

A Talk on Zoom by Andrew Redmond Barr
Thursday 25 February 2021, 7.30 pm

All Welcome Admission Free

Written in 1320, the Declaration of Arbroath was a diplomatic letter from the Scots to the Pope, calling for Scotland to be recognised as an independent kingdom. Artist and writer Andrew Redmond Barr presents his creative response to this famous Scottish document. Showcasing his new book, The Illustrated Declaration of Arbroath, Barr discusses the process of interpreting this historic letter, and makes the case for a more creative and accessible approach to Scottish history.
